

Kyushu University Open Explorations 100 A Journey of Discovery

『総合知』探究 —100のプログラムで体験する総合知のカー

Kyushu University will host “Kyushu University Open Explorations 100 – Exploring Integrated Knowledge –” (Q.O.E.100), an event designed to provide clear and enjoyable opportunities for visitors to experience the integrated knowledge cultivated through the university’s research and education. This open event visualizes and offers hands-on experiences of this integrated knowledge, and is accessible to everyone.

Event Period: March 14 (Sat) – March 21 (Sat), 2026 (8 days)

Venue: Kyushu University Ito Campus

Venue A: Jonathan KS Choi Cultural Center of Japan    Venue B: Ito Guest House

A total of 90 programs will be offered. Each program lasts 50 minutes. (lecture + Q&A).

※The primary language used will be Japanese, with some exceptions.

Hybrid Program

On-site or Online Options Available    48 Programs

On-site Capacity: 50 participants per program
Venue A: Jonathan KS Choi Cultural Center of Japan

Online Capacity: 50 participants per program

Online-Exclusive Program

Online Only    42 Programs

Capacity: 100 participants per program

※ Venue B will be open as a public viewing area.

What is Q.O.E.100?

This initiative is supported by donations from companies and organizations that endorse programs led by our researchers. By connecting researchers, industry, citizens, and students, we aim to foster future collaborations and create new value through “integrated knowledge.”

Fee: Free (Registration required)

Registration Deadline: By 12:00 noon on the day preceding each session.

※Registration will close once capacity is reached.

- Registration Method: Online registration via the dedicated form
- Details & Registration ▶ <https://in2fs.kyushu-u.ac.jp/qoe/>

- Contact : Social Engagement Division, Kyushu University    E-mail : publiclec-info@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp

Open to everyone

九州大学
KYUSHU UNIVERSITY

This flyer was created using AI.